1. Read accounts of receipts and expenditure for April 1888.

Resolved that the accounts be passed with the remark that there has been a net increase of Rs. 126-6-7½ under 'Octroi receipts' as compared with the income from that source in the month of April last year.

For April 1887	Rs.	535	15	3	126-6-7½
Do 1888	"	665	8	0½
Excess	"	129	6	7½

2. Read letter No. 220, dated 28th April 1888, from the Civil Surgeon, suggesting in accordance with Resolution 3 of the Board Proceedings dated 12th March 1888, the removal of the slaughter house to a better locality, as the present one is rather low and liable to get damp during the rains and proposing certain additions and alterations.

The Meeting approve of the proposals made and resolve that an estimate be prepared of the probable cost of the building as proposed and that the slaughter house be removed to a better locality which should be determined by the Vice-President and the Civil Surgeon after hearing the butchers in person.
